Dr. Stetson is a board certified in both orthopaedic surgery and in sports medicine by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery (ABOS). He is fellowship trained in sports medicine and arthroscopy and is a voluntary clinical professor of orthopaedic surgery at the University of Southern California (USC) Department of Orthopaedic Surgery. He specializes in sports medicine with an expertise in the arthroscopic and reconstructive surgery of the shoulder, knee, elbow and ankle. He has first-hand knowledge of athletic injuries and trauma related injuries with over 25 years of experience treating complex musculoskeletal injuries. Dr. Stetson spends 90% of his time in clinical practice and 10% of his time is devoted to being an expert witness for complex medical/legal cases.

As an expert witness, Dr. Stetson has over 15 years of experience conducting independent medical examinations (IME's) and also serving as an expert witness for medical malpractice cases and for medical product liability cases.

Dr. Stetson has also served the worker's compensation industry in California since 1998 and is now a Qualified Medical Examiner (QME) for the State of California. He is available to conduct QME and AME examinations in his office in Burbank, California.
